

Internationalisation of the Curriculum - Secondary and Tertiary Perspectives
Monday 28th November 2005, Adelaide, South Australia
Program Outline

| Time | Activity | Description |
|----------------|--|---|
| 8:30 to 9:00 | Registration | Coffee and tea will be available |
| 9:00 to 9:10 | Welcome and housekeeping | |
| 9:10 to 9:20 | Opening Address: Professor Bruce King | |
| 9:20 to 9:50 | Invited Speaker: Angela Scarino The internationalisation of the curriculum, teaching and learning as an intercultural process | Angela's presentation spans both the tertiary and secondary environments, focussing on understanding the internationalisation of the curriculum as an intercultural process that involves the interrelationship of language, culture and learning. |
| 9:50 to 10:30 | Student Panel | Students Speak: Secondary and tertiary students share their experiences of and perspectives on internationalisation. |
| 10:30 to 11:00 | Morning Tea | |
| 11:00 to 12pm | Educators Panel | Educators Speak: secondary and tertiary educators share their experiences of internationalisation of the curriculum through a facilitated discussion |
| 12:00 to 12:45 | Invited Speaker: Hanneke Teekens The profile of the ideal teacher in the international classroom | Hanneke draws on her research into the profile of the ideal lecturer in the international classroom and some of the theoretical perspectives which underpin the approach to internationalisation in Europe. |
| 12:45 to 2:00 | Lunch | |
| 2:00 to 2:15 | Plenary | An outline of the structure and goals of the parallel sessions is given. |
| 2:15 to 3:15 | Parallel Sessions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Collaborating across sectoral/geographical borders 2. Collaborating across the secondary sector 3. Collaborating across the tertiary sector | Working in small groups, participants discuss and document ways in which they can work together in the future on issues related to internationalisation of the curriculum. The discussions will be led by facilitators who will ensure a record of outcomes is kept so that these can be shared with all conference participants. |
| 3:15 to 3:45 | Afternoon tea | |
| 3:45 to 4:15 | Panel: Professional Development Opportunities Anna Ciccarelli - IEAA Angela Scarino – Credentialed learning Betty Leask – Special Interest Groups | Presenters discuss <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The International Education Association of Australia 2. Graduate Certificate in International Education 3. Special Interest Groups |
| 4:15 to 4:45 | Rapporteurs – 'What have they made of what they have heard?' | Two experienced education professionals give their perspectives on the main issues to come out of the day |
| 4:45 to 5:30 | Close and drinks | |

More details available on the web at <http://www.unisanet.unisa.edu.au/IEAAconference> and from Sue Fujino, International Education Association on (03) 9214 4386; email <sfujino@swin.edu.au>